Would Not Suffer So Again for Fifty Times Its Price.

I awoke last night with severe pains in my stomach. I never felt so badly in all my life. When I came down to work this morning I felt so weak I could hardly work. I went to Miller & McCurdy's drug store and they recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It worked like magic and one dose fixed me all right. It certainly is the best thing I ever used for stomach trouble. I shall not be without it in my home hereafter, for I should not care to endure the sufferings of last night again for fifty times its price.—G. E. Wilson, Liverton, Burgin, Washington Co., Pa. This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

A Narrow Escape.

Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Groton, S. D. "Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs, cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cured me and thank God, I am saved and now a well and healthy woman." Trial bottles free at Irvin & Co.'s Drug store. Regular size 50c. and $1.00. Guaranteed or price refunded.

BEN WILLIAMS

Is the Man Who Captured Fusselman's Murderer.

It has not yet been decided who will get the reward money so generously offered by citizens for the capture and conviction of the murderer of Charles Fusselman.

Perhaps the honor of the capture belongs by rights to Deputy Sheriff Ben Williams of Las Cruces for it was he who succeeded in landing Para behind the bars after a warm fight with six shooters. He did not know then however that Para was wanted for murder in this county. Williams took him into custody only for theft and Para was given six years in the Santa Fe penitentiary, where he was recently discovered and fully identified by Captain J. R. Hughes, of the rangers, brought to this city, tried and convicted.

There is about $500 in reward money to be distributed to some one for the work, but just who will get it has not yet been decided, though possibly it will be divided between Captain Hughes and Ben Williams. A few of the signers of the subscription list have already said that they would not pay anything now as they did not intend that the reward should remain standing for all time.

BIG WHISKY DEAL

Organization of the Distillery Company of America.—Capital is Placed at $125,000,000.

A merger of the American Spirits Manufacturers' company, consisting of sixty-five separate concerns; the Kentucky Distilleries and Warehouse company, consisting of fifty-six concerns; the Standard Distilling and Distributing company, and a number of the most important rye whisky concerns into one central company has been effected by the organization of a new concern called the Distilling Company of America, with a capital stock of $125,000,000, of which $55,000,000 is 7 per cent cumulative preferred stock and $70,000,000 common stock.

The plan contemplates a contraction of the $94,500,000 of securities now out to $77,500,000, for which amount in addition to the old securities the new company will acquire certain of the new important rye distilleries, among them the Hannis Distilling company, owning Mount Vernon and Hannisville properties and the different distributing plants of those concerns. The working capital of the existing companies to be absorbed is now about $6,000,000. The new company is to have an additional working capital of $5,000,000, of which $1,500,000 will be supplied at once.—Dallas News.

YELLOW FEVER SERUM

Dr. Doty, Discoverer of Curative Process, Talks About His Investigations and His Plans.

Dr. Alvin Doty, health officer of the port of New York, who has found not only the germ, but also the curative serum of yellow fever, cabled yesterday to Vera Cruz, Mex., offering to send a quantity of the serum there. Vera Cruz has an outbreak of yellow fever and Dr. Doty is anxious that if serum be really efficacious in the cure or prevention of the dread disease its value be known at once. An answer will probably be received today. Dr. Doty said today:

"No claim is yet made by us as to the value of the serum which I have succeeded in getting, but I do know this; I have succeeded in getting cultures which by inoculation will produce yellow fever in Guinea pigs, and I have also secured a serum which when used either as preventive or cure will, in the case of Guinea pigs, counteract the effects of the germs and save the lives of the animals. Just how far this will apply to human beings I do not yet know. We will have to make many more experiments and tests before we can make any more positive statements.

"I got my first cultures of yellow fever," explained Dr. Doty today, "from victims of the disease and developed them in test tubes. The organisms they have are reproduced very rapidly. The microbes are shaped like short rods.

"Inoculation with these invariably produces death by yellow fever in the Guinea pigs.

"Then we inoculated our two horses. The horses were sick, but recovered after a week or so. The inoculation seemed to produce in the serum, or watery part of their blood, some resisting influence, which grew stronger with each inoculation. At last we have secured serum so strong that, used either before or after inoculation with the virus in the Guinea pig, it will prevent death.

"Now of course we have only demonstrated a principle. We must still keep at work. We hope the serum can be used effectively on human beings. Just whether or not the serum so far secured will save human life we do not know yet, but it is certainly worth trying."—New York dispatch to the Dallas News.

SOLDIERS DESERTED.

Two of Them Succeeded in Escaping From Juarez.

Two soldiers belonging to the garrison at Juarez left yesterday morning at 3 o'clock and escaped to this side the river, where they are safe from molestation.

The men were seated in the guard room and had evidently arranged before hand to make a dash for liberty. Both sprang up at once and bounding past the sentry took a bee line for the American side of the Rio Grande, which they reached without mishap.

HEAVY RAINFALL.

In This Section Last Night.

A heavy rain fell here last night and so far as can be learned the fall was general all over this section.

A good shower came at 4:30 o'clock and later a steady rain began falling here and it continued long after midnight soaking the ground well and laying the dust.

Crops in the valley were no doubt greatly benefited by the rain and at least a portion of them may yet be saved.

Mrs. Lyons' Funeral.

The funeral of Mrs. T. C. Lyons took place at 9:30 o'clock this morning from the Lyons residence on Myrtle street with services at the Catholic church at 10 and interment at Concordia.

A large number of sorrowing friends and relatives of the deceased followed the remains to their last resting place.

Piazza Concert.

The concert last night by the McGintys in the plaza was attended by a large crowd who thoroughly enjoyed the music until the rain began to fall when those present dispersed.

Funeral Today.

The remains of the late F. H. Clarke were buried this morning. Funeral services were held at 9 o'clock at the Catholic church.

Laying Of The Cornerstone

Of Mt. Sinai Temple. Sermon By Rev. Oscar J. Cohen, Tuesday, June 20th, 1899.

Brethren and Fellow citizens, Ladies and Gentlemen:

To Jacob lying in the lonely field, with a dead pillow on a stone, under the first night after his departure from home, there came, Scripture tells us, an inspiring vision. A ladder was reared from earth to heaven, on which angels descended and mounted, and at its top stood the Almighty himself, uttering words of cheer and promise to the lonesome youth. When he arose in the morning, we read, he vowed a vow, saying:

"If God will be with me and keep me in this way that I go, and will give me bread to eat and raiment to put on, so that I can come again to my father's house in peace, then shall the Lord be my God, and this stone which I have set up for a pillow, shall be God's house, and of all thou shalt give me I will surely give the tenth part unto thee."—Genesis 28, 20 to 22.

We are, my friends, about awakening to the realization of the dream which has long cherished, of raising a ladder of more tangible communion between our thoughts and the eternal enthroned on high. This day God appears to our hearts, sending to us divine encouragement for we have set the stone on which the fulfillment of our noblest hopes is to be reared. Let us, then, on this sacred and auspicious occasion make our vow in the spirit of the promise which the Lord has made to us, and let us all the way we have gone, who has given us bread to eat and raiment to put on, who has established us in our homes in peace, and who has also showered manifold blessings on our lives and continually sends tokens of his loving kindness unto us, shall still be our God; and that the Temple to be built over this cornerstone which we have set up, shall indeed be God's house, because therein we shall seek and reverence him who is Almighty Father; God's house because within its walls shall be reared the divine teachings of truth and righteousness; God's house, because from it shall go forth the inspiration that will make our lives purer, nobler, kinder, holier, and let not only the tenth part, but the sum total, of our means and energies be devoted to his service, the fulfillment of his eternal commands.

Every Jewish temple, wherever it may be built, in whatever part of the world it may stand, is but a copy of the grand and holy edifice that once crowned the heights of Jerusalem, the first house of worship erected to the true God by the hands of man. Therefore have I just had a reverend brother read the song of the old time Jewish pilgrims, chanted by them as they went up to Zion's mount, the psalm voicing the affection of the ancient, as well as the modern, Jews for the holy city of the world. Yet let me say plainly that the divine revelation shining through our own experience of the centuries and through the course of mankind's history, has taught us that he whose presence pervades all space, cannot be contained within the narrow confines of one city or one land. The whole earth is his, the world and all that fills it. We still look upon Palestine with veneration as the land where our forefathers dwelt, as the soil which the prophets trod, who taught us and the world the saving truths of religion and pointed out the path of duty and of virtue. But we recognize that God is found in every place where men seek him and strive to serve him. Every country where truth and righteousness are maintained, is a holy land. We, descendants of the footsore tribes that wandered through all countries of the earth, driven by relentless cruelty and persecution, look upon this land of the Jews as of mankind's history, in token of our loyalty to it, we have assembled to lay the cornerstone of the temple in which we hope to worship the God of our fathers and of all mankind, under the folds of the star spangled banner, the beloved flag of our heaven favored land.

My friends and fellow citizens, we believe that we are making history today, not only in the career of our congregation, but also in the development of our city. We think that this event interests not only us, but every citizen and inhabitant of El Paso. For Americans, while emphasizing freedom of thought and belief, fully recognize the power of religion. Every additional church within the bounds of our city is an additional safeguard for its protection, an additional security for its strength, its growth and its prosperity. Not the law nor its officers can bring about the peace, harmony and honorable dealing necessary to the welfare of all, but the inculcation of moral principles and the implanting of the spirit of justice, righteousness and charity. In the temple to be erected here, the coming generations of Jewish men and women will be taught to be, as have been those that went before them, law abiding citizens and worthy members of the community, zealously laboring for all that will serve its highest interests.

It is because we believe this occasion concerns all of you, that we have requested the members of the fraternity of every denomination, sect and opinion, to lay the cornerstone of our Temple with its impressive rites. It is especially appropriate that you, Free and Accepted Masons, among whose membership I am proud of being myself enrolled, should conduct this ceremony; for an order is based upon the acts and teachings of those ancient builders who reared the Temple at Jerusalem, erected to God and dedicated to the holy name. I trust that all who have witnessed these solemn rites and have heard the recitation of our noble tenets, will understand that the builder's art is but to teach us how to erect the spiritual structure of truth and holiness and benevolence within our hearts and minds. Our fraternity is to perpetuate the principle, first proclaimed by Israel's prophets, the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man.

We have invited the clergy as representatives, and the men and women of every denomination, to join in our rejoicing on this occasion, because we wish to thank you for the interest you have shown and the assistance you have given to our religious work. We owe a particular debt of gratitude to the members of the Presbyterian church who gave us a place of worship, while we were homeless. Furthermore, more men of every church in this city have contributed freely and willingly to our building fund, and their names are inscribed on the archives deposited under the cornerstone, to tell future generations of their liberality and broad mindedness. Of our own good will and brotherly feeling we need give no further assurance than our acts in the past. We adhere to, and shall always try to carry out the spirit of Malachi's dictum, "Have we not all one father? Hath not one God created us all? Why, then, should we deal treacherously one against his brother, and thus profane the covenant of our father?" In the language of the Psalmist, for my brethren and companions' sake, I say: "Peace be with you all."

To the members of my own congregation let me say, in conclusion, that as the cornerstone is but part of the beginning and foundation of the temple, so has what you have so far accomplished in the organization of a congregation, been but the beginning and foundation of the spiritual work before you. May you who are here to witness the beginning of the work, be spared together with all dear to you, to witness its completion! May the zeal you have displayed, grow warmer and stronger. May the sacrifices you have made but stimulate to greater self denial and devotion, to complete this task and every one that duty shall point out to you! May what has already been achieved be the harbinger and promise of still greater things to come! And as we hope this temple will be an ornament to our city, still more may your lives be a benefit to its citizens, and all your conduct be such as to win their approval and the favors of your Almighty Judge and Benefactor!

Amen.

A Card of Thanks.

Best All-Year Route to California

Is the Southern Pacific. The travel public can easily understand this when it is known that this is the only line running coaches through California points without change, the only line running tourist sleepers direct from El Paso to Los Angeles and San Francisco, the only line running Pullman palace cars direct to the above named cities without transfer and the only line running buffet cars, thus enabling passengers to obtain their meals at hours convenient to themselves. Seventeen hours shorter time to Los Angeles than by other lines. No changing cars during nights, enroute.

Parties going to the Pacific Coast for a rest should make a note these facts.

Last fall I sprained my left hip while handling some heavy boxes. The doctor I called on said at first it was a slight strain and would soon be well, but it grew worse and the doctor then said I had rheumatism. It continued to grow worse and I could hardly get around to work. I went to a drug store and the doctor recommended me to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I tried it and one-half of a 50-cent bottle cured me entirely. I now recommend it to all my friends.—F. A. Babcock, Erie, Pa. It is for sale by all druggists.
